Dear Dr. Ledesma:

Greetings!

The Philippine Statistical Research and Training Institute (PSRTI), as the research and training arm of the Philippine Statistical System (PSS), is currently conducting a project entitled "A Five-Year Research and Training Program for the Philippine Statistical System (PSS) to Measure the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)". The main objective of this project is to make the PSS ready to meet the challenges of monitoring the SDGs by providing alternative means to generate disaggregated official statistics using innovative data sources.

For CY 2018-2019, the Institute will conduct the SDG Seminar I for Region VI on October 18, 2018 at the Mansion Hotel located at 101 General Luna Street, Iloilo City. The training course will enable the target participants, who are local government planning officers, regional NEDA representatives, Philippine Statistical Authority (PSA) provincial statisticians and Department of Education Senior High School principals, to appreciate, monitor, and use the SDG indicators to help them in their planning, decision-making and information dissemination.

In this regard, may we invite the following Senior High School Principals to participate in the said activity:

No.	School	Senior High School Principal
1.	Jingky L. Dioso	Buruanga National High School
