Dear Dr. Servillon:

Greetings of peace!

This year's International Assembly of Youth and Educators for UNESCO (Y4U) on September 6-8, 2018 at the ICON Hotel Timog, Quezon City, Philippines organized by the National Association of UNESCO Clubs in the Philippines with the support of the Philippine National Commission for UNESCO, is an annual gathering of UNESCO-accredited clubs as we all as those organizations seeking for accreditation by UNESCO. This year's theme "Protecting Heritage, Fostering Creativity in an Environment of Peace and Justice".

Like the previous conferences, it is expected that over 150 clubs all over the Philippines and Asia will converge in this annual event to share and discuss each other's efforts in championing the attainment of UNESCO's thrusts toward a peaceful and just society through: protecting our national and global heritage, fostering creativity, and the aspirations of the UN 2030 SDGs agenda through volunteerism, formal and non-formal education, life-long learning and researches.

In this connection, we are honored to invite you and your institution to be part of this event. Not only will this year's Y4U be a critical exchange of capacities, it will deepen our overall understanding of global citizenship, cultural heritage and our common goal of peace and justice.

Registration can be made online at www.unescoclubsph.org. Payment can be made by bank transfer through the following details:

EIGHTH INTERNATIONAL ASSEMBLY OF YOUTH FOR UNESCO 2018

The National Association of United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) Clubs in the Philippines (NAUCP), Inc. will conduct the Eighth International Assembly of Youth for UNESCO (Y4U) 2018 with the theme Protecting Heritage, Fostering Creativity in an Environment of Peace and Justice from September 6 to 8, 2018 at the ICON Hotel, Timog, Quezon City.

The assembly aims to

1. serve as an avenue for youth mentoring and dialogue and peer collaborations within the context of UNESCO's mandate and the Sustainable Development Goals;
2. draft a key document that embodies the ideas and action plans of the general assembly and the participants which, when adopted, will be submitted to the National Commission for UNESCO; and
3. strengthen the UNESCO Clubs' intrinsic mandate of being grassroots change makers, empowering them to carry on the challenge of localizing efforts anchored on regional, national, and international declarations.

The target participants are delegates from accredited UNESCO Clubs in the Philippines and other organizations wanting to become UNESCO Clubs, university students, faculty members, and nongovernment organizations.

Participation of public and private schools shall be subject to the no disruption of classes policy stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith.

MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the National Association of UNESCO Clubs in the Philippines (NAUCP), Inc. as it holds the International Assembly of Youth for UNESCO (Y4U), in cooperation with the Philippine National Commission of UNESCO.

Society's progress largely depends on how people appreciate, protect and nurture their history, culture and identity. I therefore commend NAUCP for establishing a platform for our youth to participate in protecting our national heritage and fostering creativity through collaborative pursuits.

May this gathering encourage our future leaders to reaffirm their commitment to make more meaningful and tangible changes in our communities. I trust that they will join us in the challenging but rewarding task of nation-building through volunteerism and partnerships with the academe, civil society and other stakeholders. Together, let us make education, science and culture the foundations upon which we will build a more peaceful and just society in the future.

I wish you a fruitful assembly.

MESSAGE

Greetings of peace and solidarity to the National Association of UNESCO Clubs in the Philippines as you come together for this year's International Assembly of Youth for UNESCO.

Our country has taken great strides in encouraging our youth to take part in nation-building. This activity is truly a remarkable exercise for the future leaders of this country, as it encourages learning and promotes an appreciation of our history and heritage among our youth.

We, in government, are one with UNESCO in your efforts to champion peace, justice, education, lifelong learning, and volunteerism in the country and in the world. We hope that this assembly will empower the Filipino youth to proactively work with us, and with the other sectors of our society, in bringing progress and development in our communities—one town at a time.

Good luck to all the participants, and may you have a memorable experience.

Mabuhay kayong lahat!

LENI ROBREDO
