DR. RAMIR B. UYTICO, CESO VI

Regional Director
Department of Education
Regional Office VI

Dear Director Uytico:

Greetings!

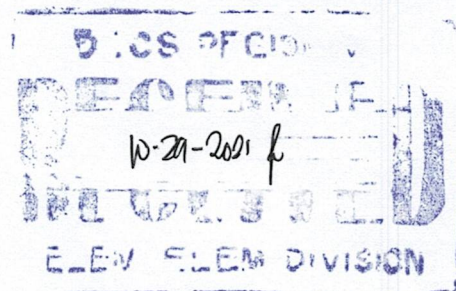

We, the Project Development Assistant for Mass Media and Communication of the Office of the Chancellor, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Division of Humanities of the University of the Philippines Visayas, are partners and co-presenters of Rappler and MovePH's Digital Media, Technology, and Society Webinar Series which aims to engage teachers, students, and leaders to be critical and discerning online. The goal of this 4-part webinar series is to engage with our audience so they can better navigate and deal with the disruptive impact of technological innovation in addressing urgent issues and crises in media and democracy.

Sharing the interest with Rappler and MovePH in bringing media and information literacy to the local Filipino communities, we continue to express working with them in their programs and activities. Thus, we are co-hosting the second installment of their webinar series scheduled for four Saturdays in the month of November.

The webinar speakers consist of notable individuals in the field of media, journalism, and communication like the 2021 Nobel Peace Prize Awardee Maria Ressa, Raymund Liboro, John Nery, Yvonne Chua, and Jonathan de Santos. The webinar topics and final dates of the series are as follows:

- Digital media landscape: Power, potential, harm (November 6, 2021)
- Digital hygiene: How to manage online risks in the age of disinformation (November 13, 2021)
- Media and democracy in crisis: How to be a responsible digital citizen (November 20, 2021)
- Fighting disinformation: Fact-checking during elections (November 27, 2021)

With this, we kindly request your endorsement and support for this activity, so that, together we can invite teachers and learners from Schools Divisions in the region to
