Dear Sir:

Coeus Review and Training Specialist, Inc. is a duly Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) accredited Continuing Professional Development (CPD) provider with PRC CPD ACCREDITATION NUMBER: 2017-118, that advocates in extending services to lessen the worries of professionals on where and how to obtain the required units. The CPD requirement is in compliance to the mandate of Republic Act Number 10912 or the Continuing Professional Development Act of 2016, whereby all professionals in possession of PRC ID are required to comply a designated number of units before eligibility to PRC ID renewal.

On this premise, the concerned professionals will fail to renew their licenses without the corresponding number of CPD units and attendance to our offered seminar workshop can provide that needed CPD requirement.

Our company, at present, offers CPD units to licensed teachers solely through services like seminars on the most pressing and relevant topics on the field of education and teaching, as well as training and workshops of the most up-to-date required skills, strategies, and practices for professional teachers and educators. The training paradigm of our activities were designed by some of the most brilliant professors and educators of the country and were accordingly reviewed and approved by the PRC - CPD Council for Professional Teachers.

With these, Coeus Team would like to humbly employ your permission and assistance in disseminating our services to your entire professional teachers and educator workforce under the Division of Kalibo's authority and leadership. In extension, we implore for your consent to allow us in marketing our company's services to professional teachers and educators in Kalibo Division.
