MESSAGE

Sinsero ag mainit nga pagtamyaw sa tanan!

Here comes the end of another school year. Many Filipino families are blessed because they will harvest the good fruits of their labor. It will be a celebration of triumph over ignorance. It will also be a celebration of welcoming the next higher ladder of education.

The community is blessed as well because all stakeholders of education shall usher in their citizens and leaders of the future. It always takes the whole community to educate a child.

This year's theme "Unity in Diversity: Quality Education for All" puts emphasis on how education equalizes the uniqueness of Filipino families in different aspects. The K to 12 Basic Education Curriculum sees to it that every Filipino child has the opportunity to develop his or her full potentials. The inclusive nature of the curriculum brings out the best in each individual so that he or she can "contribute meaningfully to building the nation."

Sa ginikanan ag pamilya it mga manogtapos, gina saludohan gid nakon kamo. Let me encourage everyone to look at this occasion as another proof that when family members are helping one another, dreams do come true. May each family member continue working and praying together, willing to sacrifice for the common good of all.

To the graduates and completers, may the beating of your heart always lead you. May you be blessed by God so that you may become the best that He created you to be. May you not forget that you have the power to change the lives of others, either positively or otherwise. And, when you are blessed with so much, may you find it effortless to be a blessing to others.

Bisan naga kaeain-eain man ro mga kinaiya naton, edukasyon ro naga hugpong sa mga pamilya nga Aklanon!
