GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE CONDUCT OF THE 2019 RSPC

The 2019 Regional Schools Press Conference (RSPC) is an activity is designed to showcase the competencies of campus journalists, demonstrate their holistic journalistic skills and proficiency through media exposure, immersion and press conferences, and promote free and responsible journalism.

Only learners from schools with school paper (print or PDF copy), both in English and Filipino, for the school year and who won the top spots in each category are allowed to compete in the various individual contests of the 2019 RSPC.

The suggested number of participants for Schools Divisions of Aklan, Antique, Bacolod City, Capiz, Iloilo, Iloilo City, Negros Occidental and Roxas City are the top 10 winners; for Schools Division of Guimaras are the top five (5) winners; while for the rest of the schools divisions are the top three (3) winners for each of the following categories:

A. Individual Contests:

	English and Filipino Categories
1) News Writing	-do-
2) Editorial Writing	-do-
3) Feature Writing	-do-
4) Sports Writing	-do-
5) Copy Reading & Headline Writing	-do-
6) Photojournalism	-do-
7) Editorial Cartooning	-do-
8) Science and Technology Writing	-do-

B. Group Contests:

- 1) Radio Scriptwriting and Broadcasting (7 members per team) - one (1) Team for English and one (1) Team for Filipino
- 2) TV Scriptwriting and Broadcasting - Secondary Level only (7 members per team) - one (1) Team for English and one (1) Team for Filipino
- 3) Collaborative Production (7 members per team) - one (1) Team for English and one (1) Team for Filipino
- 4) Online Publication (5 members per team) - one(1) Team for English and one (1) Team for Filipino

Students in elementary and secondary (both junior and senior high schools) levels are eligible to join the contests. Every student is allowed to participate in only one event, either individual or group contest, in English or Filipino category.

The student-contestants should be accompanied by their school paper advisers/coaches and supervised by the schools division campus journalism coordinators. These student-contestants in the Individual Categories must wear their school uniform with their corresponding school and RSPC ID. The group contestants may wear their Team/School Uniform, and the TV Scriptwriting and Broadcasting Contestants must be in their appropriate attire .

The Top 10 winners in the individual and group contests in both English and Filipino categories shall be declared. However, only the top three (3) (individual contests) and the best team (group contests) will represent Region VI in the 2020 National Schools Press Conference in Tuguegarao City, Region II on February 17-21, 2020.

The Regional Search for Outstanding School Paper Advisers and Campus Journalists shall likewise commence. Only one (1) entry per category (School Paper Adviser and Campus Journalist) and per level (Elementary and Secondary) with the corresponding pertinent documents and the Division Summary of Rating for MOSPA and MOCJ per level shall be submitted to the Regional Campus

Journalism Coordinator on or before November 14, 2019. The top three winners shall be awarded but only the top 1 shall be submitted to the central office for the national search.

Likewise, the Regional Search for Outstanding School Papers shall commence with the submission of school paper entries (10 hard copies) for both English and Filipino and per level - elementary and secondary (maximum of 10 entries per schools division) accompanied by the Certificate of Circulation by the school principal and duly noted by the Schools Division Superintendent on or before November 14, 2019. The top ten winners by section (News Section/Pahinang Balita, Editorial Section/Pahinang Editoryal, Feature Section/Pahinang Lathalain, Sports Section/Pahinang Pampalakasan, Science and Technology Section/Pahinang Agham at Teknolohiya and Layout and Page Design/Pag-aanyo at Disenyo ng Pahina) shall be declared.

All Schools Division Education Program Supervisors In-charge of Campus Journalism are enjoined to check on the existence of school papers among the participating schools, and enforce the "No School Paper, No Student Contestant" policy. It is also reiterated that the schools should respect the Intellectual Property Rights, and adhere to the rules concerning plagiarism. No campus publication shall be submitted to the Regional Office that has copied and published texts, graphics and other materials without duly acknowledging their sources.

In order to assist the host school in the efficient preparation for the forthcoming activity, an online PRE-REGISTRATION at <https://forms.gle/GofAepN6ka2EbLKg8> of all division participants is required through the schools division In-charge of Campus Journalism. The list of official delegates (separate Individual - Elementary and Secondary, and Group - Elementary and Secondary) should be submitted to the RO-CLMD Office or through clmd_depedro6@yahoo.com and the registration fees should be directed to the Principal of the host school at least one week before the date of every contest. Issuance of the official receipts will be by school.

The annual membership fee (Php100.00 for school paper advisers and Php50.00 for student-writers) shall be paid directly to the treasurer of the Regional Association of School Paper Advisers and Campus Journalist, Inc. on the day zero (0) of every scheduled contest.

The distribution of conference kits will be done on the day zero (0) of each of the scheduled activities at the venue from 1: 00 PM to 6:00 PM only. The school paper adviser shall be the one to claim the kits.

The decision of the Board of Judges in all aspects of the contests (Individual, Group, School Paper, MOSPA, and MOCJ) shall be deemed final and irrevocable.

During the individual contests, the following will be strictly implemented and complied with:

1. To facilitate proper identification, the participants are required to wear their school uniform with their valid school ID/RSPC IDs especially during the contest proper.
2. Should there be questions and assistance needed, the participants can only raise their concerns to the assigned proctor and/or examiner. The proctor shall refer them to the Regional TWG for appropriate response.

GUIDELINES FOR THE COLLABORATIVE DESKTOP PUBLISHING CONTEST

- A. The competition is designed to encourage teamwork among campus journalists and simulate the workplace of an editorial department in a publishing house.
- B. Each region shall organize a team of seven members who shall not be competing in any of the individual writing contest. There will be one team for English and another for Filipino, both at the elementary and secondary levels. Contestants shall wear their uniform with identification cards.
- C. All contestants are required to attend the orientation before the actual competition.
- D. Once the contest has started, members of each team shall no longer be allowed to go back to their quarters nor communicate in all forms (text, call, chat, etc.) with their respective advisers until the end of the contest.
- E. A mini press conference will be held to become the basis for the actual writing of the editorial, feature and news articles. The sports writers shall attend coverage of an actual sports event. The photojournalists shall take pictures of the mini press conference and editorial cartoons will be produced while the rest of the team is doing write-ups, layouting and editing.
- F. Sports writers and photojournalists must be ready to watch an actual game where they shall gather appropriate data and/or conduct interview before and after the game. A pre-game conference shall be conducted for the introduction of the players, coaches, and tournament officials. Consequently, a post conference shall be held for further interview and data gathering.
- G. The team will be given four (4) hours for data gathering, writing, layouting, and editing.
- H. Each team is allowed to bring at least two (2) digital/DSLR cameras, one (1) inkjet printer with scanner, one (1) card reader, one (1) blank flash drive, extension wires and a maximum of (4) laptops installed with either PAGEMAKER or IN DESIGN and Photoshop (for the secondary level) and Microsoft Publisher (for the elementary level) for the layout of the group's final output. Official laptops, previously cleared of stored documents, shall be submitted for checking by the RTWG. Failure to submit the laptops for checking on/before the contest starts shall mean disqualification of the competing team.
- I. Mobile phones and other electronic gadgets shall not be allowed except for digital cameras and laptops with disabled internet connection.
- J. Each team will be required to convert their output into PDF, print and submit it to the contest committee. The collaborative desktop publishing team shall submit both hard and soft copies of their entries. They should ensure that no identifying marks about their school and division can be found on their output as it would be a ground for disqualification.
- K. The output of the contest is an A4-size four-page full-colored publication. The output will be stored in a flash drive provided by the NTWG and uploaded to the designated computer for judging.
- L. The top 10 teams shall be recognized.
- M. The decision of the Board of Judges shall be deemed final and irrevocable.

GUIDELINES FOR THE ONLINE PUBLISHING CONTEST

1. Each Region shall organize a team of five (5) members who shall not be competing in any of the individual and group contests. There will be one team for English and another for Filipino for the secondary level only.
2. The competition is designed to encourage teamwork among campus journalists and simulate the workplace of an editorial department in an online publishing house.
3. All contestants are required to attend the orientation before the actual competition.
4. Once the contest has started, members of each team shall no longer be allowed to go back to their quarters nor communicate in all forms (text, call, chat, etc.) with their respective advisers until the end of the contest.
5. A mini press conference will be held to become the basis for the actual writing of the editorial, feature and news articles. The sports writers shall attend coverage of an actual sports event. The photojournalists shall take pictures/videos of the mini press conference while the rest of the team is doing write-ups, layouting and editing. The team will be given two (2) hours for layouting and editing. Sports writers and photojournalists must be ready to watch an actual game where they shall gather appropriate data and/or conduct interview before and after the game. A pre-game conference shall be conducted for the introduction of the players, coaches, and tournament officials. Consequently, a post conference shall be held for further interview and data gathering.
6. The team will be given four (4) hours for data gathering, writing, layouting, editing of articles online after the creation of an online publication using the official platform to be provided by the organizer.
7. Specific instructions on the number of articles to be produced will be given during the orientation.
8. Each team will be required to bring one scanner, at least two digital cameras, and a maximum of (4) laptops installed with Photoshop for image enhancement.
9. Each team shall bring two (2) of their own pocket wifis (preferably with two different networks) and extension cord.
10. Each group shall submit their URL to the assigned examiner.
11. The top ten teams shall be recognized and the points will be included in the determination of the overall standing.
12. The decision of the Board of Judges shall be deemed final and irrevocable.

GUIDELINES FOR RADIO SCRIPT WRITING & BROADCASTING CONTEST

A. General Guidelines

1. Each division shall have two (2) separate teams composed of seven (7) members for the English and Filipino categories.
2. To facilitate proper identification, the participants are required to wear white polo shirt with their valid school ID/RSPC IDs especially during the contest proper.
3. An orientation shall be conducted for all the contestants.
4. Individual awards include best anchor and best news presenter, while group awards include best in technical application, best infomercial and best script.
5. In getting the overall results for best radio production, accumulated points from the individual and group awards shall be considered.
6. The decision of the Board of Judges in all aspects of the contest shall be deemed final and irrevocable.

B. Scriptwriting

1. Each team may use up to three (3) official laptops, cleared of stored documents, and an inkjet printer in preparing and printing of the script. All laptops should be inspected prior the start of the contest. Each team is required to bring their own extension wires and other equipment for rehearsal.
2. The students will be given 1 1/2 hours to prepare a script for a 5-minute radio broadcast, that includes an infomercial, which may depict health, environment, politics and social issues, and four (4) news articles, which may be based on press releases, raw data, or any other option given by the NTWG. The infomercial shall have a maximum length of (1) minute and shall use the language that the group is competing in. Another 30 minutes will be allotted for the printing of the output. After two (2) hours, each team should submit four (4) copies of the script. Three (3) will be submitted to the judges and one (1) to the RTWG. The team may print extra copies for their own use.
3. Once the script writing has commenced, the contestants will no longer be allowed to leave the contest rooms. For personal necessities, a member of the contest committee shall accompany them to the rest rooms.
4. The script should not bear any information that may identify the school, division or region, but it should include the names of the members of the team with their job assignment/contribution (i.e. anchor, news presenter, etc.).
5. Scripts should be:
 - encoded using Arial font size 12
 - with directorial instructions in capital letters
 - double-spaced with normal margin (1inch on all sides)
 - printed in A4-sized bond paper (8.27x11.69 inches)

C. Broadcast Simulation

1. A broadcast room for the presentation shall be identified in the contest venue. Only the contestants, judges and the members of the contest committee shall be allowed inside. The student broadcasters shall be concealed from the judges all throughout their presentation.
2. The organizers/host school shall provide a sound system and ensure quality audio output. The technical operator shall only set the sound system before the simulation. A jack/auxiliary cord/adaptor will be provided for the laptops and other sources of sound effects.

3. Except for the volume meter, contestants/technical director shall not be allowed to change, adjust and manipulate the main control board during their presentation.
4. Mobile phones and reference books shall not be allowed in the contest area.
5. In case of power failure, the affected team shall be allowed to perform again.
6. The directors will identify the order of presentation through drawing of lots.
7. Each team shall be given eight (8) minutes: two (2) minutes of which for preparation, five (5) minutes for the actual broadcast and one (1) minute for exit. Provided running time shall be applied.
8. The organizers shall provide a wall clock or a timer, which will serve as the official time that can be seen by the contestants and the judges. There will be an official time keeper.
9. A yellow flaglet shall be raised to signal the team that they have one (1) minute left for preparation. The green flaglet shall then be raised to signal the team to start. The yellow flaglet shall be raised again to warn the team that they only have one (1) minute remaining followed by the red flaglet to indicate that their time is up.
10. The team who complied with the 5-minute production shall be given perfect score (5 points). In case of overtime or undertime, the following scheme of deductions shall be followed:
Undertime/Overtime
1 second – 20 seconds – 1 point
21 seconds – 40 seconds – 2 points
41 seconds – 60 seconds – 3 points
61 seconds and above – 4 points
11. The contestants shall leave the broadcast room right after their presentation.

GUIDELINES FOR TV SCRIPT WRITING AND BROADCASTING

PRE-CONTEST

1. Each Division shall field a team of seven (7) members. The team shall decide who shall act as:
 - a. anchor/s (not more than 2)
 - b. reporter/s (not more than 3)
 - c. producer/director who could also act as floor director
 - d. video graphics editor (1)
 - e. video researcher/floor director/ prod. Assistant - 1
 - f. video journ/camera man - 1

Note: Any of the team members can assume one or two positions/tasks as long as this would not be conflicting or awkward in relation to the outcome of the broadcast (example: an anchor can't be a reporter at the same time. But an anchor can also be a news or infomercial writer).

2. The following materials and equipment must be brought by the team:
 - a. four laptops with one back up laptop with at least 10GB free space for video editing program (with uploading capacity)
 - b. 2 empty USBs
 - c. digital camera / phone camera (without sim at most 2 units) which is compatible with the laptop for the downloading of media
 - d. at most 3 wired lapels
 - e. A4 paper and one compatible printer with ink
 - f. At most 3 broadband (sticks) or pocket wifi, one wireless router
 - g. extension cord
3. The tools and equipment that will be provided by the management team in the mock broadcast room shall be used by the participants during the actual contest.
4. A technical orientation will be held prior the contest for the technical director and editor to be familiar with the equipment and materials to be used on the actual broadcasting contest.

CONTEST PROPER:

Note: The teams will be oriented on the theme of the contest, roles of the participants and criteria for judging by the chairman of the board of judges. All participants should attend this orientation. Agreements/ground rules agreed upon by the management and the participants during the orientation shall likewise be adhered to.

A. SCRIPTWRITING

1. The teams shall have the following components in their script:
 - a. COVER PAGE: This shall contain the group's name (mock TV network name)
 - b. NEWS ARTICLES: The contest organizers will provide five (5) news articles. The scriptwriters may choose only four (4) or cover the five (5) news articles: national news, foreign news and news feature. Each news script should have video and audio component and must not exceed 45 seconds when read during the contest proper. This means each news script must have 3-5 short paragraphs.
 - c. ONE INFOMERCIAL / DEVELOPMENTAL COMMUNICATION: This should be original and in line with the theme of the contest. The script should also contain video and audio component, and the production must not exceed 30 seconds. The video support can be pre-produced.

- d. ONE FIELD REPORT: The report must be delivered live but the video support will be pre-produced. Video shooting must be done within the time allotted for the contestants. The news script must contain the video and audio description and the news must not exceed 60 seconds.
