Principal, Tinigaw Elementary School

Dear Dr. Gomez:

Environmental Greetings!

I am very pleased to inform you that Tinigaw Elementary School made it to the Top 3 (Elementary Level) in the 2017 Regional Search for Sustainable and Eco-Friendly Schools.

Your sincerity and passion to excel and your utmost care to the environment have borne such fruitful results. You kept your dedication firm and did not budge or give up any time in between, in spite of various struggles, and your commitment to become stewards of God's creation has brought you here today.

Relative thereto, we would like you to join us on June 29, 2017 at 2:00PM at Robinsons Place Jaro Event Area, as we give recognition to your exemplary work and great efforts to protect, enhance and conserve the environment as well as your commitment and dedication to furthering our mission. Please come in our Pambansang Kasuotan (National Dress) on this auspicious day. We reserved three (3) seats for your school.

Furthermore, please email to region6eeiu@gmail.com the confirmation slip not later than June 23, 2017 (Friday).

Should there be questions on this matter, kindly coordinate with Rabbie Chris Carvajal and Joy Espino of the Environmental Education and Information Unit of EMB at telephone numbers (033) 300-13-17.

Congratulations on this outstanding achievement.

Sincerely,

ENGR. ARIEL A. GLORIA, DIR. II
Regional Director

Dear Dr. Gomez:

Environmental Greetings!

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude for the support and help the Division of Aklan had provided during the 2017 Regional Validation of Sustainable and Eco-Friendly Schools.

The team headed by Architect Mar Bien Gregory Parel assisted us tremendously in the regional validation in the Province of Aklan.

Again, thank you for everyone's major efforts.

Sincerely,

ENGR. ARIEL A. GLORIA, DIR. II
Regional Director
