DATE : October 18, 2024

1. The Teacher Education Council (TEC) officially approved the conduct of the pre-service teacher education curriculum review during its 3rd Quarterly Meeting (QM) on October 9, 2024.
2. This initiative is pursuant to the Republic Act 11713, or the Excellence in Teacher Education Act, where the TEC is mandated to “set and mandate basic requirements for teacher education programs, monitor and quality assure compliance therewith to ensure a strong and transparent link between the outcomes of teacher education programs and the professional standards for teachers and school leaders, research, and international best practices. It shall likewise ensure that such minimum requirements are implemented by the CHED” (Section 8, c).
3. In this regard, the information on the plans for pre-service teacher education curriculum as presented during the TEC 3rd QM is provided for your reference (see Annex A).
4. In this regard, the TEC has launched initiatives/activities for this purpose. One of them is the national survey that aims to solicit the collective perspectives of various stakeholders, including in-service teachers, school leaders, students and parents’ opinions, regarding the pre-service teacher education curriculum in the country. It is requested that this survey be disseminated within your jurisdiction to engage your stakeholders in the ongoing curriculum review by sharing through your official platforms. The link to the survey can be accessed here: www.tinyurl.com/TECurriculumReview

ANNEX A
Information on the TEC Pre-service Teacher Education Curriculum Review

A. Background information

TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL

Based on RA 11713, Section 8, c, the Teacher Education Council is mandated to:

“set and mandate basic requirements for teacher education programs, monitor and quality assure compliance therewith to ensure a strong and transparent link between the outcomes of teacher education programs and the professional standards for teachers and school leaders, research, and international best practices. It shall likewise ensure that such minimum requirements are implemented by the CHED.”

(emphasis supplied)

RA 11713 mandates the Council to issue the minimum requirements for teacher education programs.

TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL

Drivers that compel the review of pre-service teacher education curriculum

There are about six (6) drivers that compel the review of the curriculum.

- National directions for education
 - Portion of this involves the strengthening of Technical-Vocational Education and Training (TVET) which impact training pre-service teachers imbued with practical training to support the new directions.
- National laws affecting the curriculum development in teacher education
 - Teacher training, regardless of specialization, must be able to address the requirements of the new laws such as, but not limited to:

- RA 11476 or the GMRC and Values Education Act
 - RA 11650 or the Instituting a Policy of Inclusion and Services for Learners with Disabilities in Support of Inclusive Education Act
 - RA 11106 or The Filipino Sign Language Act
 - RA 11510 or the Alternative Learning System Act
3. Issues in basic education and teacher-subject mismatch
 - Issues draws attention to the existing hiring policy of DepEd wherein subject assignment is not declared in job posting. There is also a need to align the specializations offered in college/universities to the needs of education.
 4. Strengthening the SHS curriculum
 - Pre-service curriculum should develop teachers who can teach the proposed new courses in Senior High School (SHS).
 5. Evaluation of the impact of the global pandemic on education
 - The preservice curriculum is now required to support teachers' flexibility to adapt to challenges and build on the fundamental needs of the students.
 6. Global trends in teacher education
 - The pre-service teacher education curriculum is expected to have more practice-based component to support experiential learning. The teacher-educators in TEIs will also be expected to develop a robust mentoring program which shall be complemented in the basic education side for mentoring pre-service teachers in their practicum.

ANNEX B

Some of the FGD questions for the pre-service teacher education curriculum review

1. What is your view of an effective teacher?
2. How do you see the collaborations between DepEd public schools and teacher education institutions (TEIs) happening in terms of the practice teaching of pre-service teachers?
3. How should the pre-service teachers prepared before they go to practice teaching?
4. What other types of immersion to actual teaching do you think pre-service teachers need?
5. How should DepEd schools and teachers who handle practicum students be supported by the TEIs?
